Re: Royce Corley v. Rantab Enterprises Incorporated, et al.
24-CV-0528 (MMG)(KHP)

Dear Judge Garnett:

We represent Defendants Mount Sinai Morningside and Anjali Singh, M.D. in this matter. We will represent Christina Liu, M.D. if and when she is served.<sup>1</sup>

Our law firm respectfully submits this letter motion to request a stay of Your Honor's Order, dated August 5, 2024, which instructs our law firm to conduct an additional 60 days of investigation into the identity of the Jane Doe Mount Sinai administrator or employee and file a letter with the Court by October 4, 2024 regarding the actions taken and information uncovered. (ECF 42). As the Court is aware, our law firm filed a pre-answer motion to dismiss the Complaint on both substantive and statute of limitations grounds. (ECF 38-40). Should Your Honor grant Defendants' motion to dismiss the Complaint as time-barred, any claims against the Jane Doe Mount Sinai administrator/employee would also be time-barred, rendering any information pertaining to the identity of this individual moot.

Based on the foregoing, we request that Your Honor's Order be stayed until a decision is made regarding the timeliness of plaintiff's Complaint. We thank the Court for considering our request.

Very truly yours,

Gabrielle Apfel

GA/ja

<sup>1</sup> We have been advised that, to date, Christina Liu, M.D. has not yet been served.
